IN-DEPTH COLLECTION INFORMATION

Historical Note: The Challenger newsletter grew out of the Honors Society Newsletter (1990), which was originally co-published by faculty coordinators and honors students. This grew into a credit-bearing independent study for honors students who published the first issue titled Challenger in February/March 1991. The title was temporarily changed to Epiphany during the fall 2000 semester, and resumed under the banner of Challenger in 2001. Each semester, students published 3-4 issues of the newsletter. With the exception of an off and on column or letter from faculty coordinators, all content was created, formatted, and edited by students.

Scope and content:

The collection consists of publications of the Harper Honors Society, published under the banners Honors Society Newsletter (1990-91), Epiphany (2000), and Challenger (1991-). Most of the newsletters are 8-12 pages in length and consist of a single signature stapled along the center fold. The Harper College Archives has published many of the issues on its website in PDF format on the Student Publications page.

Student Publications -- Harper Challenger Collection

The publication's content consists mostly of short magazine-style articles and interviews written by students relating to current events, honors society news, etc. Some issues contain letters or updates from faculty coordinators.

System of Arrangement:

The publication is arranged by publication date or estimated publication date where no date is indicated on the issue. Issues that are available on the Harper College Archives website are linked below.
